

Satellite radio provides a great variety of music that is not available in all areas of the US; i.e. Philadelphia doesn't even have a classical music station anymore. The satellite radio is the most convenient way to always have access to music, news, comedy, weather, and traffic situations with a touch of your dial. Please, please do not interfere with this!